- Athletes: Building tactical awareness, race preparation, and off-the-bike skills
- Coaches & Managers: Enhancing technical knowledge and team leadership
- Commissaires: Gaining experience in officiating national-level events

We encourage all states and territories to uphold the Series standards and actively contribute to its growth.

- Entry Fee: $20 per round
- Travel Subsidies: Available for eligible teams to assist with costs The Series is proudly funded by the Australian Cycling Team, reinforcing its national significance and long-term mission.

Beyond the Track

The AJTS emphasizes life skills essential for high-performance sport, including:

- Managing travel and accommodation
- Developing self-sufficiency
- Preparing mentally and physically for competition

These experiences help shape well-rounded athletes ready for the demands of international racing.

Looking Ahead

Race Day Expectations

On race day, coaches and team managers are responsible for placing riders in positions that best support their development and performance. To ensure this process runs smoothly, we kindly ask that parents and guardians maintain a respectful distance from athletes and team areas.

This request applies from the moment riders arrive for event preparation until they are dismissed at the conclusion of the day's competition.

We're not asking families to step away from the excitement of race day—quite the opposite. We encourage you to cheer proudly from the stands, enjoy the atmosphere, and give your riders the space they need to focus, grow, and express themselves freely.

Please note:

- If you are not directly involved with a team or combine, we recommend remaining in designated spectator areas.
- Spectator entry is free at all AJTS rounds.
- Track centre access is restricted to athletes, officials, and approved team personnel.

Experience has shown that a clear separation between family and race day activities contributes positively to athlete focus, independence, and overall performance.

Thank you for your understanding and continued support in creating an optimal environment for our young riders.
