

georgia baker

track = road

was a black belt in taekwondo nickname G or George date of birth 21/09/94 age 31 state TAS hometown Launceston

coffee order

Flat white

favourite food

My mum's lamb roast or a charcuterie board

idol

My Dad

go-to comfort movie

Bridesmaids

favourite food

My mums lamb roast or a charcuterie board

if I weren't a cyclist, I'd be...

I'm unsure but something involving sport favourite event to race

Tough one... on the track the Madison and on the road the Belgium Classics

Georgia Baker is one of Australia's most accomplished cyclists, achieving success across both track and road disciplines.

A multiple junior world champion, Baker quickly established herself on the international stage:

- Gold medal – Team pursuit at the 2019 UCI Track World Championships

Baker delivered a standout 2022 season across disciplines:

- Gold medals – Team pursuit, points race and road race at the 2022 Commonwealth Games
- Bronze medal – Mixed relay at the 2023 UCI Road World Championships

A three-time Olympian, Baker has continued to build an impressive record:

- Multiple national titles
- Silver medal – Madison and points race at the 2023 UCI Track World Championships

In 2025, she added a major road victory to her achievements:

- Stage winner – Tour of Chongming Island (UCI Women's World Tour)

With sustained success across track and road, Baker remains one of Australia's leading cyclists on the world stage.

what a successful commonwealth games would look like for me

For me I'd love to be able to repeat my last  Commonwealth Games, but as long as I get the most out of myself and my teammates we should be proud