

Ryan Elliott

track

date of birth 06/04/04 age 22 state QLD hometown Brisbane club Balmoral CC

coffee order

Caramel iced latte

favourite food

Churros

go-to comfort movie

The Princess Bride

idol

Frank Wu

sports I follow and who

NBA, my king LeBron James pump-up song

Party Rock by Kimj

if I weren't a cyclist, I'd be...

DJ in the Chinese underground favourite event to race

Team sprint because I get to compete with the fellas

"It makes me proud that I can showcase my skill and talent to country that's invested in me"

Ryan Elliott is regarded as one of Australia's most exciting young sprint cyclists, rising through Brisbane's renowned Balmoral Cycling Club sprint pathway.

Elliott announced himself on the world stage in 2022:

- Gold medal – Team sprint at the UCI Junior Track World Championships
- Silver medal – Sprint at the UCI Junior Track World Championships
- Silver medal – Team sprint at the 2024 UCI Track World Championships
- Bronze medal – Team sprint at the 2025 UCI Track World Championships
- Bronze medal – Team sprint at the 2025 UCI Track Nations Cup (Konya)
- Multiple Oceania and national medals

Two years later, Elliott made his elite ARA Australian Cycling Team debut at the 2024 UCI Track World Championships and won silver as Australia's team sprint starter. The Queenslander has made the starting role his own ever since and has become a mainstay of the ARA Australian Cycling Team. al sprint success.

"I'm one of the highest ranked Magic Sort! players in the world"

ARA
australian cycling team

how I first got into cycling

Watching the Tour Down Under when I was 7 proudest moment of your career so far

Getting silver at my first elite world championships my perfect off day looks like

Waking up at midday and eating lollies all day and staying up to past midnight