AUSCYCLING

AusCycling is thrilled to announce the return of our Junior Track Series for its thirteenth season!

This Series has grown from its modest beginnings to become a cornerstone of our junior track development pathway. It has played a crucial role in nurturing future champions, with many young talents having honed their skills through participation.

We deeply appreciate the collective effort of everyone involved—coaches, riders, volunteers, and parents. Your support is invaluable, and we thank you for your dedication.

Our goal remains to enhance the development, depth, and visibility of track cycling across Australia. The AJTS offers growth opportunities not just for athletes, but also for coaches, managers, and Commissaires. We encourage all states and clubs to fully embrace these standards.

For the 2024/25 season, we have introduced an entry fee $20 per round to help cover ongoing costs and towards the live streaming element that has now become an essential part of the series. However, we are continuing to offer subsidy claims for traveling teams and the claim forms will be distributed during the weekends racing once all riders have signed on.. The AJTS, funded by the Australian Cycling Team, is a national competition with a broader mission.

Beyond the racing itself, the Series emphasizes the importance of off-the-bike skills—such as adapting to travel, managing accommodation, being self-sufficient, and preparing for races. Many riders who have started their careers in this series have gone on to achieve success at the World Junior and Elite Track Championships.

We look forward to another fantastic season and to continuing the journey of developing Australia's next generation of track stars!

On race day, coaches and team managers will place riders in positions that they believe will best support their development and performance. To help facilitate this, we kindly ask that parents and guardians support the coaches by maintaining a respectful distance from the team and athletes. This request applies from the time riders arrive for event preparation until they are dismissed at the end of the day's competition.

We're not asking you to stop enjoying race days with your children. Instead, we encourage you to give them the space they need to focus and express themselves freely. If you're not directly involved with a team or combine, we recommend that you take a seat in the stands and enjoy the event. There is no charge for spectators at any round of the AJTS.

Experience has shown that a clear separation between family and race day activities often has many positive benefits for the athletes. Thank you for your understanding and support in creating an optimal environment for our young riders.
